2017 National Philanthropy Day Award Criteria

There are six awards promoted locally that are open for public nominations.

Outstanding Philanthropist Award:

This award recognizes an individual or family for contributions to one or more organizations in Northern Illinois. The individual or family must have a proven record of exceptional generosity through direct financial support and demonstrate outstanding civic and charitable responsibility.

Outstanding Corporation or Foundation:

Corporations or foundations are honored for outstanding commitment and financial support of philanthropic causes in Northern Illinois. The award recognizes a business or foundation whose generosity has greatly benefited the community, as well as encouraged and motivated others to assume leadership roles toward causes of philanthropy.

Outstanding Fundraising Volunteer Award:

This outstanding individual must have demonstrated exceptional leadership skills coordinating major fundraising campaigns and motivating groups of fundraising volunteers for the benefit of charitable institutions.

Outstanding Community Service Volunteer Award:

This outstanding individual must have made a significant impact by providing support through gifts of their time and talents to a number of organizations in the not-for-profit community.

Future Philanthropist Award:

This award honors an individual or group of young people, up to 24 years of age, for extraordinary volunteer fundraising efforts on behalf of philanthropic causes.

Presidential Youth Service Award:

This award recognizes exemplary leadership and generosity of spirit in an elementary, middle or high school student or group of students whose selfless efforts have benefitted a good cause in the community. Young people who receive this award represent the best of humanity and good citizenship and serve as an inspiration to all.
